

TIMELY SALE

Instead of waiting till January, as is the usual custom, I have decided to have a general clearance of all high grade RUGS, CARPETS, LINOLEUMS, and MATTING now, so that people needing FLOOR COVERINGS may purchase at less than manufacturers' wholesale prices. After a most successful fall season, I don't want to carry over any of these goods, which will enable me to keep my stock in a clean condition. Included in this is a shipment of rugs that should have been received September 1, but only arrived last week, so that the very latest patterns can be procured, and not in any case SHOPWORN or AUCTION SALE GOODS. Below is a partial list, the cheapest that Floor Coverings have ever been quoted in the District. Goods will be reserved till Christmas upon the payment of a deposit, as they will make useful gifts.

JUSTICE STAFFORD TO LAUD PHILLIPS

Famous Anti-slavery Orator
Born 100 Years Ago.

The centenary of the birth of Wendell Phillips, the famous anti-slavery orator and reformer, will be celebrated next Wednesday evening at the Metropolitan A. M. E. Church, under the auspices of the American Negro Academy.

Justice Wendell Phillips Stafford, of the District Supreme Court, will deliver the historical oration. Justice Stafford brings to this performance profound sympathy with the subject, a trained literary ability, and thorough knowledge of the great movement which ended in the civil war.

Prof. Kelly Miller, of Howard University, will preside. Rev. Matthew Anderson, principal of the Berean Industrial School, of Philadelphia, will deliver the invocation, and President Wilbur P. Thirkield, of Howard University, the closing prayer and benediction. The university choir, Miss Lulu V. Childers, chorister, will render musical selections. The American Negro Academy holding the centenary is now in its fifteenth year. Hon. Archibald H. Grimké, of Boston, Mass, is president, and John W. Cromwell, principal of the Alexander Cramwell School, of this city, is corresponding secretary.

MASONIC FAIR A SUCCESS.

New Temple in Brookland Crowded Every Evening.

The fair which King David Lodge, No. 25, F. A. M., is giving in its new temple at Brookland has been well attended every evening this last week, a large crowd being present on Wednesday evening when a series of concerts was given to the local choir of the Methodist church and several solos were sung by city talent. The concert was repeated Thursday evening.

The candy booth, operated by Mr. Boskey, the groceries booth by Mr. Williams, and the fancy articles booth by the ladies of the local chapter of the Eastern Star, have proven quite popular, as has also the dancing on the second floor of the temple.

On Friday evening the Grand Chapter of the Eastern Star were present in goodly numbers and were entertained by the fair management. The fair will be continued through this week.

SIX DIE IN EXPLOSION.

Thirty Others Injured in Blast in British Colliery.

Birmingham, England, Nov. 25.—Six were killed outright and thirty others injured in an explosion in a colliery at Dudley, eight miles from here, this afternoon.

ENGLISH PREACHER TO GIVE RECITALS

Rev. Enos Bacon Sings at Immanuel Church To-day.

To-day at the 11 o'clock service in Immanuel Baptist Church, Sixteenth street and Columbia road, the Rev. Enos Bacon, of England, will preach and sing. He will also be present at the evening service, and give two concert recitals in the same auditorium to-morrow and Tuesday evenings.

Mr. Bacon is known throughout the world as the Yorkshire Nightingale, having been wonderfully endowed with what may be called two voices, one a rich soprano, and the other a sonorous baritone. Mr. Bacon's abilities were discovered while he was a Yorkshire miner and has been for many years amazing and delighting audiences everywhere he travels. This is his first visit to America, and press opinions are unanimous as to his marvelous powers. The recitals are given under the personal direction of Percy S. Foster, who will be his accompanist.

RELIGION AND SUFFRAGE.

Miss Royden Will Tell of Women's Movement in England.

The renewed activity of the suffragettes in England will make the address of Miss Maude A. Royden in this city one of particular interest. Miss Royden represents the conservative wing of the suffragists, the associations that are opposed to acts of violence and the breaking of the law, and in her lecture she will tell of the progress of the suffrage movement and what has been done by the conservatives.

Mrs. Henry R. F. Macfarland is in charge of the committee on platform, and ministers of all denominations have been invited to hear what has been done in the church and for the church by the woman suffrage movement in England. The lecture is to be given at Pythian Temple Monday evening, December 4.

FIRE RUINS THEATER.

$20,000 Damage Is Estimated in Washington, Pa.

Washington, Pa., Nov. 25.—The Nixon Theater, in the Lyric Building, North Main street, was gutted by fire early this morning. The damage is estimated at $20,000. Before the arrival of the firemen the entire first floor had been swept by the flames, and the upper part of the building was burning.

William Young, a fireman, fell twenty feet and was badly injured.

BULKLEY TALKS AT 'VARSITY CLUB

Chairman Parker Tells of Plans for New Home.

"The Yellowstone Park" was the subject of a lecture last night before the University Club by Harry Bulkley, a member. It was one of a series of bi-weekly entertainments during the winter months.

Mr. Bulkley illustrated his lecture with a collection of richly colored lantern slides. Among them were "Old Faithful" geyser, which sends up its stream every sixty-five minutes; the Castle geyser; the Fountain geyser; the Glass Mountain; the hot spring terraces, and scores of other natural wonders. Also there was a series of slides of the game inhabiting the government reservation.

Preceding the lecture, Col. Myron M.

Parker, chairman of the building committee of the club, gave a brief talk on the plans for the new clubhouse. Fifteenth and I streets northwest. Mr. Parker announced that work of raising the buildings now on the site will be commenced to-morrow.

Claude N. Bennett, chairman of the entertainment committee, presided.

HIBERNIANS TO CELEBRATE.

Rev. Father Meagher to Give Anniversary Address To-night.

Rev. J. R. Meagher, pastor of St. Dominic's Church, will deliver the address upon the occasion of the celebration of the seventy-fifth anniversary of the establishment of the Ancient Order of Hibernians in America, which will be held this evening in Carroll Institute Hall.

Addresses will also be made by Rev. George A. Dougherty, vice president of the Catholic University; P. J. Doherty, P. Carr, P. T. Moran, P. J. Halligan, and members of the German-American Alliance, who will be present. There will be a musical programme furnished by the choir of the Ladies' Auxiliary. The chairman will be Joseph D. Sullivan, the District vice president.

WOULD OUST LOWDEN.

Illinois Progressives Want Him to Leave Committee.

Chicago, Nov. 25.—Illinois progressive Republican leaders to-day followed up their demand for a preferential primary vote for Presidential candidates by a flat demand upon Frank O. Lowden, national committeeman, that he resign from the Republican National Committee.

The letter to Mr. Lowden is signed by E. B. Fletcher, chairman of the organization committee of the Progressive Republican League of Illinois.

BELIEVED HIM AN OWL.

Bogus Organizer for Order Victims Dies Parkersburg.

Parkersburg, Nov. 25.—More than 100 business and professional men of this city learned to-day that they had been victimized to the extent of $5 each by a man representing himself to be an organizer for the Order of Owls. A letter received from the national headquarters of that organization states that it has no official representative working in this section.
